

GEORGE W. RAUCH, FORMER INDIANA, CONGRESSMAN DIES

MARION, Ind., Nov. 5—(AP)—George W. Rauch, Marion lawyer who served 10 years in the house of representatives, is dead at 64.

He died of a heart attack at his home yesterday, day before election.

Rauch, a Democrat, represented the old eleventh Indiana district in congress from 1907 to 1917. The district later was reconstituted as the fifth.

He was a member of the Grant county selective service advisory board. Of late years, he had been receiver for a bank.
